ENCLOSURES (NO. &amp; TYPE)

REMARKS

1. On five days between 1 and 10 May 1951, all quarters in the Hubertus Kaserne, Hamburg, were fully lighted. The order barring civilians from the billeting area was lifted on 7 May.

2. All quarters of the Bluecher Kaserne were also lighted on five days between 1 and 10 May 1951. Troops observed in the installation wore black-bordered ruby epaulets. About 400 troops, including 35 officers, from the installation were loaded at the freight yard for shipment toward Bad Koesen in the evening of 3 May. German employees were allowed to enter the installation on 6 May for the first time since 10 April.

3. On four days prior to 10 May, all windows of the Hindenburg Kaserne were lighted, but there was no regular training activity of the troops there. These troops wore black-bordered ruby epaulets. In the evening of 6 May, 600 to 700 troops, who wore black-bordered ruby epaulets and apparently came from the Hindenburg Kaserne, were loaded at the main railroad station. The double sentries previously seen patrolling the billeting area were withdrawn on 7 May.

4. An undetermined number of troops from the Bismarck Kaserne were loaded at the main railroad station on three trains in the evening of 6 May and left toward Bad Koesen. The troops, who included 50 officers up to and including majors, wore red-bordered black epaulets and black-bordered black epaulets, including some with artillery and tank insignia. The materiel which the troops took with them included 6 x 100-mm AT guns, 4 x 120-mm field mortars, 6 T-34 tanks, and 15 motor vehicles.

- 25X1A. Comment. Conclusions as to the occupation of the barracks installations in Haunburg were made in a previous report. The information in the present report on troops departing by rail indicates that further headquarters units of the XXIX Gds Mts Rifle Corps and elements of the 57th Gds Mts Rifle Div moved to the Kindel troop training grounds.

previously mentioned a major troop movement between 17 and 30 April 1951.
